

Health Professions Advising and The Princeton Review
present

2017 Summer Pre-Med Bootcamp

July 5th - August 2nd

Join us for an intensive, 4 week bootcamp consisting of MCAT prep from The Princeton Review, pre-medical advising from Health Professions Advising, and weekly field trips to medical schools in the Sacramento and Bay area. Bootcamp sessions are open to everyone.*

Daily Schedule (Monday - Thursday):

Fridays: Field trip to a medical school

- You do not have to be registered for The Princeton Review course to come to the Bootcamp. The Bootcamp workshops are free and open to everyone.

- Bootcamp sessions will consist of daily presentations, workshops or hands-on activities on relevant topics, including:

- Application Tips
- MCAT Strategies
- Interview practice
- Gaining Letters of Recommendation
- Personal statements
- Hands-on suturing & CPR workshops
- Post-bac programs
- Health disparities

*There are a limited number of spots for field trips. Apply to attend the field trips at:
hpa.ucdavis.edu/prehealthprograms/premedbootcamp.html

- Classes will include a morning session (9 a.m. - 12 p.m.) and an afternoon session

- The Princeton Review MCAT Partnership Course includes:
 - 123 hours of live instruction from subject-matter experts
 - On-demand content review with 500+ MedFlix video
 - 14 practice test with explanations including 3 from AAMC
 - Diagnostic exams in advance of each class
 - All AAMC materials as they're released
- Price: $1,874 USD
- Use the code UCDPHMCAT17 when enrolling for the MCAT Partnership Course

Enroll for The Princeton Review MCAT Partnership Course at:
www.princetonreview.com/product/offerings/339930