Diablo Valley College Pleasant Hill, CA (51 miles)	PSYCH 200: Life Span Development This course examines the developmental changes and sociocultural events that take place during an individual's life span from conception to death. A major goal of this course is to introduce students to the psychological characteristics, personal/social developmental problems and opportunities for each of life's age periods. A second goal of this course is to expose students to classic and contemporary theory and research in the area of human development. Emphasis will be placed on life cycle theories, the role of heredity and environment, and the role of individual differences. Life stages will be viewed in terms of a variety of theoretical frameworks which address the following domains of human development: physical, cognitive, social and personality.
